ANSWER

Section 12 of the Act makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit, which for Local Authorities is set at £450. This represents the estimated cost of one person spending 2.5 working days in determining whether the department holds the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information.

Leicester City Council has a large number of museums and historic buildings covering the many and varied areas of Leicester's heritage. Owing to this there are a large number of items that are captured within the boundaries of your request. We estimate that it will take us in excess of 2.5 working days to determine appropriate material and locate, retrieve and extract the information. Therefore, your request will not be processed further.

You may wish to refine your request by narrowing its scope by being more specific about what information you particularly wish to obtain, including any dates or period of time relevant to the information required.
