

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Please forward to me actual copies of letters and e-mail communication that you or officers from the Planning Department have had with councillors in relation to the above planning application. My request is being made under the Freedom of Information Act and I am requesting to see copies of all communication.

ANSWER

Please find attached copies of the requested communication.

The names and contact details of the writers of some of this correspondence have been redacted, as have the names of junior members of staff. These are exempt from release under s40(2) of The Act as they are personal data and this therefore acts as a refusal notice under s.17 of The Act.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
