

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I would like to know the current situation in one of the cases of Leicester City Council re: the alleged theft of monies from De Montfort Hall. In particular, when is the case expected to come to court?

ANSWER:

Leicester City Council confirms there exists no case, or proposed case, of Leicester City Council insofar as matters that come under the Council's jurisdiction are concerned. Criminal prosecutions are a matter for the Crown Prosecution Service and we confirm that we do not hold information at this time in respect of any intentions of the CPS regarding criminal matters.

The Council does not hold this information. Therefore this letter acts as a refusal notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because, in accordance with section 1.1 of the Act, this information is not held by Leicester City Council.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
