

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

We are asking for research into why children are being removed from parents that have reported suspected abuse (physical / sexual /emotional / neglect). I refer to abuse in these questions as actual or suspicion.

1. Please tell us where the legislation is i.e. children's Act 2004 or Working Together Every Child Matters or any other law or policy that might be used to state that it is abuse to report abuse.

We are not aware of legislation which states it is abuse to report abuse.

2. How many parents have reported abuse within the last 3 years that involved abuse towards a child from another parent, extended family or friends.

3. Out of the number stated in question 2, how many of these parents that reported abuse had their children removed from their care? Can you please provide a Breakdown in the following categories.

- i) It is abuse in itself to report abuse.
- ii) Failure to protect.
- iii) Risk of possible future emotional harm.
- iv) Other reasons - please specify.

4. Out of the number of children removed from parents that have reported abuse, how many of these children were:-

- i) Placed in foster care in hope to return to parent.
- ii) Placed in foster care in hope to place in adoption.
- iii) Adopted out.
- iv) Placed with the parent that was the alleged abuser.
- v) Placed with parent that has supported the alleged abuser.

5. Out of the parents reporting abuse that have had their children removed:-

- i) How many of these parents were the only ones to hear disclosures or visually record evidence (i.e witness or bruises)
- ii) How many How many of these parents where disclosures or visually record evidence (i.e witness or bruises) were also heard or seen by professionals.
- iii) When social services take a parent to court for reporting abuse, how many social workers have mislead or withheld information from the courts (i.e disclosures to professionals)
- iv) Is it an offence for social workers or professionals to withhold evidence to the courts and if so what are the laws broken? How many times has this happened?

Section 12 of the Act makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit, which for local government is set at £450. This represents the estimated cost of one person spending more than 18 hours in determining whether the department holds the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information.

Your request would require the manual trawl of each case referred or reported to Leicester City Council in the last 3 years. We estimate it would take several days to process and collate the data requested.

This is therefore a Refusal Notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act, because under the provisions of section 12.1 of the Act, the Council estimates that to comply with your request in its current form will exceed the appropriate limit.

You may wish to refine your request by narrowing its scope by being more specific about what information you particularly wish to obtain, including any dates or period of time relevant to the information required. We do have a duty to advise and assist you in refining your request under s16 of the Act, therefore, please do not hesitate to contact us if you require further assistance.
