

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Committed Network is a registered NHS charity (no XT21274) and we would like to know who are now the main points of contact for Public Health when the transition competes in April.

In some circumstances the actual job titles may have changed and so if that is the case, could you please provide the names of the people with an equivalent job role/title.

Could you also let us know either their ! email or whether they are using a nhs.net email or a local authority one.

ANSWER:

Director of Public Health

Deb Watson – deb.watson@leicester.gov.uk – Local Authority email

Associate Director of Public Health

Rod Moore - rod.moore@leicestercity.nhs.uk – NHS email

Consultants in Public Health

Leicester City Council only gives out the personal details of its senior staff at Head of Service level and above. We are withholding this information since we consider it to be an absolute exemption under section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
