

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I would be grateful if you could send this to me as soon as possible, or let me know if you are unable to, or if there will be a delay, how long that will be.

ANSWER:

Please find attached the information that was missing and the website is currently being corrected.

In addition, the email address for information requests on the spending data page of your website is wrong: foia@leicester.gov.uk. Please could you have this corrected as it has taken me some time to find the correct contact details.

The email address has now been changed, and should you have any further requests please note the correct address is info.requests@leicester.gov.uk.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
