

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

How much did your Council spend on contract advertising in the OJEU (Office Journal of the European Union) for (a) supply and service and (b) works in each of the last five years.

ANSWER:

Leicester City Council have not spent anything on OJEU Notice advertising. We place our OJEU's through an e-Sourcing Portal. Apart from the yearly license fee of £150 to use this portal, there are no additional advertising costs.

What proportion of the Council's contracts have been procured from companies based in non-UK EU countries in each of the last five years.

None of the Council's contracts that we know of are directly procured from companies based outside of the UK.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request.
