

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

As you are aware, the Children's Act 1989 requires local authorities to keep a register of disabled children in their area. Can you please provide the following information:

- a) Confirmation that the local authority has an active register.
We can confirm that LCC has an active Disabled Children's Register, this is held by Disabled Children's Service

- b) Provide the number of disabled children on that register.
There are currently 1121 names on the register.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
