

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Please can you send to me the councils top 50 construction suppliers and top 50 sub-contractors in order of spend for 2012-13 through the freedom of information act thank you. I don't wish to be charged for this information.

ANSWER:

Please see attached list for the top 50 construction suppliers in order of spend.

The list of contractors is based on information obtained under the heading of "construction" from our accounting system. This will include minor works and repairs and maintenance.

Leicester City Council does not hold information on Sub-Contractors. The Council does not hold this information. Therefore this letter acts as a refusal notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because, in accordance with section 1.1 of the Act, this information is not held by Leicester City Council.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
