

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 I seek the following information:

What are the 5 most valuable (asset value when new) non-commercial/industrial cars that are owned, obtained under finance or leased by the council. Non-commercial/industrial means passenger cars, not vans, trucks, lorries, sweepers, gritters or anything similar.

If you could please provide me with the 5 most valuable unique models under the council's ownership or management and their value when new?

I would prefer to receive this information electronically via email to pmacdaddyuk@gmail.com.

ANSWER

Please see the attached document '4571 Attachment'.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
