

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

The financial breakdown of the pantomime run of Aladdin at De Montfort Hall, produced by Imagine Theatre. To include profit, loss, fee and financial split.

ANSWER

The Council does hold information in relation to your request. However the Public Interest Test that was held established that this information is exempt under Section 43.2. Leicester City Council are unable to disclose full details of the financial breakdown as it would be likely to prejudice the commercial interests of both Imagine Theatre Limited and Leicester City Council.

This therefore acts as the statutory refusal notice required by section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because of the reasons contained in FOIA S43.2 – the disclosure of this information would, or would be likely to, prejudice the commercial interests of any person (including the authority holding it).

However, we can confirm that the productions were sourced in line with public procurement rules, and the 2013/14 production was well received artistically, was profitable and exceeded anticipated income and sales volume targets.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
