

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000
ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION REGULATIONS 2004

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I should like to receive copies of all Road Safety Audits carried out in connection with the Sainsbury's development of the former Thorn Lighting site at the junction of Melton Road and Troon Way.

ANSWER

We have considered your request in accordance with the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIRs) as the information you have sought disclosure of, does in our view, fall within the definition of 'environmental information' as stated in the EIRs.

Please find attached copies of the stage 1 and stage 2 audits. Signatures have been redacted as these are considered personal data under regulation 13.

In relation to the stage 3 audit, this is yet to be finalised and still in draft. We are therefore unable to provide you with the information requested because in our view the exception in regulation 12(4)(d) of the EIRs applies. This exception provides that a public authority may refuse to disclose information that relates to unfinished documents or incomplete data.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
