Answer:

The person registered for the payment of National Non-Domestic Rates from 6th August 2001 to 13th April 2002 (which covers the period requested) was a private individual rather than a limited company. The names of the owners who are private individuals are considered as personal information and as such we are withholding that information since we consider that to be an absolute exemption under section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.
