

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I understand there is a consultation from Leicester City Council about the financial support of Western Park.

Could you please forward any background papers (including e-mails) relating to this consultation (by e-mail) including any options appraisals relating to the financial viability of the gold course. I would also like to see any documents including e-mails considering or discussing the fate of the land should the financial support to Western Park Golf course be withdrawn. This relates to all communications within Glenfield Parish Council and Leicester City council or between these councils.

ANSWER: Please find attached the background emails relating to this consultation. (A small amount of data has been removed under s40(2) of the freedom of Information Act as this is personal data of junior officers at the Council.)

There are no emails or documents considering or discussing the fate of the land should the financial support to Western Park Golf course be withdrawn.

Also there are no communication emails with Glenfield Parish Council.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use, or for journalistic purposes. If the information is a dataset (which does not relate to the environment), you may also use the information for commercial re-use under an Open Government Licence.
