

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Housing Stock Transfers

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

'I am interested in local authority transfers of housing stock transfers into community ownership that have occurred within the last 6 years.

The documents should be held by your Housing Service and could include transfers of full or partial stock to ALMOs, housing associations, registered housing providers, charities etc.

Recognising how straight forward these documents should be to identify and extract, as they would have been significant projects therefore requiring good record keeping, please supply me with via email copies of:-

- * options appraisals,
- * feasibility studies,
- * project plans,
- * business cases/plans,
- * tenant offer prospectus, and
- * your formal application for Secretary of State (or the Homes & Communities Agency) approval.'

Answer:

Leicester City Council has made no transfers of housing stock into community ownership in the last 6 years.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use, or for journalistic purposes. If the information is a dataset (which does not relate to the environment), you may also use the information for commercial re-use under an Open Government Licence.
