

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Under the current Payment By Results Domestic Abuse Contracts, what financial penalties for failure to meet targets have been imposed since commencement of the contracts

ANSWER:

As part of the current domestic violence services contracts (commenced in 1st September 2012), the council has introduced a process whereby 20% of the contract value is subject to a payment by result (PBR) approach. The council's intention to use this approach was shared as part of the Invitation To Tender (ITT).

The methodology for arriving at the level of PBR to be awarded to organisations is attached for your information.

As a result of using this approach, the council has withheld £42,575.85 for the period 2012-13 and £4,897.60 for the period 2013-14; these amounts have been reinvested to improve the delivery of the commissioned services.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use, or for journalistic purposes. If the information is a dataset (which does not relate to the environment), you may also use the information for commercial re-use under an Open Government Licence.
