1. The vehicle must not carry any other form of company insignia, advertising or anything that would suggest it is for hire.
2. The vehicle is to display a window disc and have a copy of the licence plate available in the vehicle for inspection on request.
3. The driver must wear a chauffeur's uniform.
4. The exemption from displaying the standard licence plate and door signs applies to 'executive' hire only. Any other work must be carried out in accordance with the standard conditions for private hire vehicles.
