

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - Roadworks & Streetworks

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Under Freedom of Information I would be grateful if you could provide the following information:

1. Does the Council publish roadworks and streetworks information via the web? (As defined by e-Government directive G14, Traffic management Act 2004 and subsequent Open Data policies.)

Yes

If so:

2. Please confirm how often the data is updated and in what format it is published (basic list or map). Please provide the URL where this information is published.

Every 30 minutes - map based

3. Please confirm which data fields are published (e.g. Works Location, Dates, Works Description, Works Promoter, etc.)

Displays all mentioned above – see <http://www.leicester.elgin.gov.uk/>

4. Does the Council release the data in electronic format for re-use under an Open Government Licence or equivalent? If so, please confirm whether this is provided direct or from a third party provider. Please provide details of the API or other data update mechanism. Please confirm any applicable charges for this service.

For your information this letter constitutes a refusal notice under Section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because an exemption under Section 21 of the Act is being applied, namely the information is already in the public domain. Please see the web address: <http://www.leicester.elgin.gov.uk/>

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
