

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Following on from our response to your earlier request, reference number 0816, you stated:

This response quite clearly states that the authority are updating the accessibility strategy for schools. As the council has an existing strategy then I require to see that strategy (and the exemption would therefore not apply).

I would therefore like you to review the response as I believe it is flawed.

Our response:

Please find attached a copy of the Accessibility Strategy. It is not current and is being updated. The updated strategy will then form part of the councils Equality Toolkit for use in schools and is therefore intended for future publication.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request.
