

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

In your published spend you detail costs incurred from the use of a Credit Reference Agency, Experian. How does the council utilise such information purchased, is this subject to a formal contract(s) and when are such contract(s) due for review/renewal?

The Council's Revenues and Benefits Service use Experian for tracing debtors and company searches to assist with the billing and collection of Council Tax and Business Rates. The current contract runs from March 2010 to February 2012. A new Council-wide contract for credit referencing information is currently being finalised.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
