

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Could you please supply, as a single figure in square kilometres, the total area of school fields that are in schools that are controlled by the local authority?

The information requested is not captured by Leicester City Council, therefore, Leicester City Council does not hold this information. This letter acts as a refusal notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because, in accordance with section 1.1 of the Act, the information is not held. Please contact individual schools directly.

We do hold a record of the total land area of each school and the school building footprint. We have subtracted the building footprint from the total land area to reach the figure below. Please note, this land area will include hard playing surfaces, driveways, car parks and school playing fields.

2.016 square kilometres.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
