

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - Habitat Offsetting Schemes

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I understand completely that due to the nature of your records that would take far too long. Do you know if there is anybody on your team who might have a recollection of any such projects? Even if the list is not exhaustive it would great to have a couple of examples.

Answer: Please see attached document:

- Ans Attch11 - This is the Upperton Road Scheme.

We have also identified another project, once we have received the details for this we will forward this onto you.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Head of Information Governance using the details below.
