

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Thank you for your letter of 11th October where you requested information about the number of people living at 6, Roshill Crescent.

I can confirm that the Council holds this information. This information is exempt under Section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.

This is an absolute exemption and there is therefore no requirement to consider the public interest.

However, a copy of the electoral register is held at Leicester Central Library (Bishop Street, Town Hall Square) and is available to view on request. This will let you know how many people of voting age (or near voting age) live at the address.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to:

e-mail: foia@leicester.gov.uk

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Your request for internal review should be submitted to the above address within 40 (forty) working days of receipt by you of this response. Any such request received after this time will only be considered at the Council's absolute discretion.

You can also complain to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office

Telephone: 01625 545 700

Please be aware that the Information Commissioner does not normally consider appeals or complaints until the internal appeals and complaints processes of the public authority which is answering the request have been exhausted. You are therefore advised to complain or appeal to Head of Information Governance before contacting the Commissioner.

Yours sincerely
