

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I'm writing to you as I found the following FOI request (the following is a website link of a successful FOI request):

<http://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/lo...>

I am after a similar request to this - however with more detail.

Please could you let me have all the locations (street names) in Leicester and LE postcodes where you have Non-Standard Construction & Prefabricated Reinforced Concrete (PRC) properties. Please list all individual types of construction for the properties that are not of standard brick construction.

Please can you list the data in the same format style as the FOI request cited at the start of this request.

If there is more than one type of "laing construction" (or any other type of construction) - please can you be type specific, where possible.

Please see the attached spreadsheet

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
