

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

I am interested in sourcing local traffic count data as part of an ongoing research project (Mobitest) that my company, Ipsos MORI, has been contracted to undertake. Could you please let me know if you do hold such data and, if so, whether you are in a position to be able to supply this to us? If there are any commercial terms associated to this, then it would be useful if you could also detail what these are.

ANSWER

I can confirm we do hold such data, however this letter constitutes a refusal notice under Section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because an exemption under Section 21 of the Act is being applied, namely the information is accessible by other means.

This information can be accessed via the following link:

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
