

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

The percentage of total budget cuts applied to the tourist information centres in your local authority during the last complete financial year, that you have records for.

ANSWER:

The last complete financial year to which you refer is 2010/11. The tourist information centre in Leicester is operated by an independent company and funded in part through a contractual arrangement with the City Council. No budget cut was applied to that funding in 2010/11.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
