

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Could I please make freedom of information request for the full food hygiene inspection reports for two local takeaways:

Raj Mahal - aylestone road
Piccadilly pizzas - Lutterworth road

ANSWER

Please find attached the requested reports for Raj Mahal of Aylestone Road and Piccadilly Pizzas of Lutterworth Road.

The report for Piccadilly Pizzas mentions a revisit that was planned for 15th November 2011. We can inform you that this visit was carried out as planned to check compliance with the matters detailed in the inspection report. The Food Business Operator was deemed to have addressed these matters to a satisfactory standard and so no further enforcement action was taken. No paperwork was generated on that revisit so there is no further paper work to supply in response to your request.

Some third party data of junior staff has been redacted as this information is exempt under section 40 (personal information) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), as the information constitutes third party data. Section 40(2) provides that personal data about third parties is exempt information if one of the conditions set out in section 40(3) is satisfied. Under the FOI Act disclosure of this information would breach the fair processing principle contained in the Data Protection Act (DPA), where it would be unfair to that person/is confidential.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use.
