

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

- 1. Please can you tell me how many people have been prosecuted for dishonestly using disabled parking badges during the last ten years. If you do not have figures going back ten years, I would be happy to accept the yearly figures you do have. Could you break the figures down by year.

No one has been prosecuted during the last 10 years for dishonestly using a disabled parking badge.

- 2. If you have the data, I would also like to know the ages and occupations of those prosecuted as well as the level of the fine and/or other penalty imposed against them.

Given that no one has been prosecuted, we hold neither information regarding persons prosecuted, nor information regarding fines or penalties imposed.

To the extent that the Council does not hold this information, this is therefore a Refusal Notice under Section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, because in accordance with Section 1.1 of the Act this information is not held.

- 3. Could you also tell me how many disabled badges are issued each year in your area.

During the financial year 2010-2011 Leicester City Council issued 4,950 Blue Badges. This figure provides a fair representation of the approximate number of badges issued each year.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Head of Information Governance using the details below.
