

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

With regard to the request relating to the luncheon, I note your reply that 'this was hosted by the Leicester Cathedral and not the City Council'. I am grateful for this information and will address my enquiries appropriately. Please confirm that the City Council made no contribution, neither financial nor material, to the costs of this event, whether it may have been for the venue, the costs of food, the costs of beverages or the costs of staffing the event. In the event that the City Council made any contribution to the event please provide a detailed breakdown of the sum involved and what it was used for.

ANSWER:

We can confirm that Leicester City Council did not make any financial or material contributions to the luncheon.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
