

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

The name of the purchaser of the data (or a suitably anonymous identification which indicates whether the purchaser was an individual or an organisation).

The total revenue from the selling of electoral roll data?

I would request that the period covered is 1st May 2007 – 1st May 2012. (But do not request the information be broken down by years)

Please break down your response by the sales concerning the full register and sales of the edited register.

ANSWER:

Please see the attached documents for this information. Personal information has been taken out and we are withholding that information since we consider that to be an absolute exemption under section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
