

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

1.Address and rates payable (not rateable value) of all empty commercial properties with a current rates payable of £40,000 and above that are within your area.

2.The names and addresses of the owners of the properties referred to in (1)

3.Can you please ensure that the information collated is from the above date

For your information this letter constitutes a refusal notice under Section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because an exemption under Section 21 of the Act is being applied, namely the information is accessible by other means. This information is available on the Council's website (updated every quarter), and can be accessed via the following link:

<http://www.leicester.gov.uk/your-council-services/housing/non-domestic-business-rates/empty-properties/>

The names of the owners who are private individuals are considered as personal information and as such we are withholding that information since we consider that to be an absolute exemption under section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
