

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Could you please supply me with the committees/boards which Gail Neil from the Nottingham Diocese sits on within the county council.

How long she has sat on them?

The number of meetings in the past year that the committees/boards have met and the number she has attended of these?

Can I have similar information for the previous three years if possible.

ANSWER:

Gail Neill does not sit on any committees or boards currently. Her only prior involvement was as a voting co-opted member of the Children, Young People and Schools Scrutiny Commission from March 2012 - June 2012, representing the Roman Catholic Diocese. However, she was unable to attend any of the three meetings during that period. The Commission has met 34 times in the last three years.

Please include copies of material which you hold in the form of paper and electronic records including emails.

Please see attached. We are withholding personal information since we consider that to be an absolute exemption under section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
