

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

“Details of all current empty commercial properties within your authority which should include Shops, Office and Industrial premises, if possible on an excel spreadsheet containing the following information:

Property Billing Reference
Property Type
Rateable Value
Property Vacant Date
Property Address
*Liable Party Name
Liable Party Correspondence Address

Where the liable party (account holder) is an individual and you are unable to supply us with their details due to the Data Protection Act, could you still please supply property details.”

Please see the attached spreadsheet with details.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
