

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Please accept this letter as a formal request under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and provide the following information:

- 1. All traffic regulation orders relating to bus lanes in Leicester
- 2. All traffic regulation orders relating to bus gates in Leicester

ANSWER

As a great proportion of orders are not electronically searchable, to provide you with the information on the scale that you have requested would require searching through all stand alone bus lane order documents since and including the first bus lane order of 1974, after first removing all orders directly revoked in full or part by later bus lane orders and/or striking out parts of orders revoked in part by later orders (approx. 8 hours).

Then we would need to search the paper copies of all 1500 (approx.) orders raised since 1974 for bus lanes raised within those orders and for revocations in full or part of stand alone bus lane orders above. Remove or strike out parts of relevant bus lane orders above (approx. 60 hours).

Section 12 of the Act makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit, which for Local Authorities is set at £450. This represents the estimated cost of one person spending 2.5 working days in determining whether the department holds the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information.

We estimate that it will take us in excess of 2.5 working days to determine appropriate material and locate, retrieve and extract the information in reference to your request. Therefore, your request will not be processed further.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
