

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

My request is in connection to the original procurement contract to provide e-tendering services to a selection of councils in the UK, which I believe you won and thus Source Leicestershire was created.

Please could you provide a copy of the contract award notice for this service. This contract award notice should include :

Name and full address of the contract award winner

Description of the services being provided

Contract value

Contract start date

Contract expiry date

ANSWER:

LCC did not tender out for this and we do not pay anything for its usage. Source Leicester is a sub-portal of Source East Midlands and was tendered for by Derbyshire County Council as the lead Authority.

The Council does not hold this information. Therefore this letter acts as a refusal notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because, in accordance with section 1.1 of the Act, this information is not held by Leicester City Council.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
