

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Using the 'Freedom of Information Act 2010' I would like to request a DVD copy of the Council's CCTV footage from 6pm to 1am in and around the Leicester City Centre Clock Tower area and nearby city centre McDonald's area on the 9th of August 2011.

ANSWER

CCTV footage is only kept by Leicester City Council for 28 days. After that it is automatically re-written over.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
