

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Please can you tell me what the incremental costs were over the cost of producing the normal canvass of:

- producing and sending Section 11 instructions/forms and/or information
- setting up your IT system/database to record section 11 instructions (including any software development fees)
- processing section 11 requests received from voters

Where the costs are internal (ie. staff working hours) please advise the number of hours and hourly costs of those employees.

ANSWER:

Leicester City Council does not keep a record of Section 11 requests. The Council does not hold this information. Therefore this letter acts as a refusal notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because, in accordance with section 1.1 of the Act, this information is not held by Leicester City Council.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.
