

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

Taxi data to include:

PH or Hackney license number,

Registration Number,

Vehicle type,

Owner/company

Date in (the date that the 1st license was given by you to the vehicle)

ANSWER

Please find attached the information in response to this enquiry. Please note that this information varies on a daily basis but this is the list as at 4th September 2012.

The only information that we hold in relation to the date a first licence was issued, is the date the original licence expired, which is approximately 12 months after it was issued.

Where a licence was issued before October 2006, we do not have this information due to a change in computer systems. Therefore this part of the letter acts as a refusal notice under section 17.1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 because, in accordance with section 1.1 of the Act, this information is not held by Leicester City Council.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
