

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Your request for information has now been considered and the Council's response to your questions is shown below.

You asked:

“Please tell me the name/s of the company or companies which traded as Blue Star at the following address's, how long each of them occupied the premises and if they paid any business rates.

15 Belgrave Gate, Leicester

38 Gallow Tree Gate, Leicester LE1 1DA

43 Haymarket Centre, Charles Mall, Leicester LE1 3YE

If you cannot identify the companies which traded as Blue Star please tell me who was responsible for the business rates at each of the above address's for the last five years.”

The companies were trading as private individuals at all the three addresses above. The names of the owners who are private individuals are considered as personal information and as such we are withholding that information since we consider that to be an absolute exemption under section 40(2) (personal data), and this therefore constitutes a refusal under section 17 of the Freedom of information Act 2000.

The legislation allows you to use the information supplied for your own personal use. Please be aware that any commercial or other use, for example publication, sale, or redistribution may be a breach of copyright under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 as amended unless you obtain the copyright holder's prior permission.

Not all the information that is supplied which is covered by copyright will be the Council's copyright, for example it may be the copyright of a government department or another Council. You should seek either the Council's consent or their consent as appropriate. The Council is willing to advise you of any such potential issues on request. In order to make a request to re-use the information please contact the Information Governance Manager using the details below.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request please write to:
