Good morning,

We have received the request below under the FOI Act 2000 from [REDACTED] Please could you let us have a response by 23rd October 2020. Reply to the e-mail address info.requests@leicester.gov.uk and use reference number 21673 in the subject line.

Whilst the Information Governance & Risk team will continue as normal for as long as possible processing statutory information requests, the Information Commissioner understands that Councils may have to prioritise other more critical services. The IG&R team will therefore not chase any late requests or authorisations during this unprecedented situation.

Please Note:

- 1. If you are not the person who can answer this enquiry please tell us now and forward this request onto the correct person/service; and
- 2. Tell them to contact us directly.
- 3. Please also let us know as soon as possible if: a) the information is not held in your systems; or b) You estimate it would take over 18 hours to extract, retrieve and prepare it for disclosure. Remember: Telling us now may prevent you having to do lots of unnecessary work.
- 4. Do not under any circumstance contact the requester (or any other external person or organisation) directly.

Any issues with the above, please contact Information Governance & Risk as soon as possible.
